

Q-Pharm Pty Limited

Project Manager – Clinical Trials

Q-Pharm is a private company providing contract research services for sponsoring companies conducting early phase clinical research programs. The company is located on the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital campus at Herston, Brisbane.

Primary Function

The project management of assigned clinical research trials/projects within Q-Pharm Pty Limited's clinical facilities.

Knowledge and Skills

- Previous experience managing clinical research trials/projects.
- Ability to, or previous experience in, managing and developing people.
- An excellent understanding of relevant ICH/GCP, NHMRC and TGA regulatory guidelines.
- Understanding of confidentiality and privacy laws and guidelines relevant to medical research.
- Understanding of the importance of data quality and accuracy in health research and clinical trials.
- Good understanding of medical terminology and disease processes.
- High level organisational and time management skills
- Ability to work well in a team-based environment.

Qualifications and Experience

A nursing, science or related health professional background is essential.

An attractive salary package will be offered to the successful candidate.

The application package and selection criteria for this position are available from our website: www.qpharm.com.au.

Applications close Friday 12th March 2010

Janet Luton
Human Resources Coordinator - Clinic
Q-Pharm Pty Limited
(07) 3845 3659