“Regulatory Career Paths in the Biotech Industry”

Regulatory Affairs: An Evolving Role in Pharmaceutical and Biotechnology Development

Have you considered this career path?

Join us for a presentation by:

Professor Evan Siegel, CEO
Ground Zero Pharmaceuticals Inc., Irvine, California

GZP Inc is a specialist regulatory affairs consulting firm that guides companies from discovery stage to drug approval. The GZP team have decades of experience from within the FDA and from major contract research organisations and biotechnology/pharmaceutical companies. Professor Siegel is an Adjunct Professor at The University of Queensland.

Followed by a presentation by:

Ms Rose-marie Pennisi - Business Development Manager, TetraQ

Rose-marie Pennisi, a UQ Pharmacy graduate with an MBA, has extensive experience in regulatory affairs gained while working in 'Big Pharma' multinational pharmaceutical companies (3M Pharmaceuticals and Wellcome Australia Ltd), and in private Australian entrepreneurial companies (Herron Pharmaceuticals Pty Ltd and Imaginot Pty Ltd).

Who should attend?

Research Higher Degree Students & students enrolled in the B Biotech, M Biotech and Pharmacy programs.

Venue: Seminar Room 1, AIBN (James Footes Building #75)
Date: Tuesday 18th December 2007
Time: 10 - 11 am & afterwards for networking
Light refreshments will be provided after the seminar.
RSVP: Sharon Prasad at s.prasad@tetraq.com.au by 17th December 2007.

Jointly presented & supported by TetraQ, The University of Queensland & Qld Clinical Trials Network Inc